

Website Building: Basic Layout

CSS – Responsive typography

The following exercise contains the following subjects:

- vh, vw

Instructions

There are many tips and tricks on how to create a responsive design. One tip is to create responsive typography. Google responsive typography or read this article.

Create any header tag and with the help of specific CSS units make the header tag bigger and smaller when changing the browser's viewport.