

Front-end development:

Basics

JavaScript – functions

The following exercise contains the following subjects:

- functions

Instructions

Why pay a fortune teller when you can just program your fortune yourself?

1. Write a function named `tellFortune` that takes 4 parameters:
jobTitle, location, partnerName, numberOfChildren.

Based on this output the function returns a string with this format:

‘You will be a programmer in New York married to Rana with 2 children’.